

Health IT

Interoperability Services

Solution:

Experts at enabling organizations to realize a business and technical focus of serving individuals rather than programs.

- Personal Data Integration Solutions
- Advanced Analytics
- Better Decision Making
- Enhanced Consumer Experience

THE VALUE OF PERFORMANCE.

NORTHROP GRUMMAN

Expert Interoperability Services

Blending human services expertise and information technology knowledge with a focus on helping people, Northrop Grumman delivers interoperability services to enable organizations to increase program access, enhance consumer experience, and administer government programs more efficiently and effectively.

- Interoperability Analysis, Prioritization, and Planning

AS-IS analysis of disparate business processes and IT investments, and TO-BE roadmap development to guide effective IT investment and development - in support of better client delivery outcomes

- Interoperability Solutions Design and Development

Leverage technical and program expertise to design flexible, scalable solutions for improved program access with optimized efficiency through interoperability, standardization, and automation

- Interoperability Solutions Implementation

As a recognized “Best Fit” IT Integrator, integrate and implement SOA solutions to enable enterprise interoperability for data exchange, enhance intra- and interagency automation, and streamline business workflows

- Data Integration and Analytics

Provide collaborative resources for collecting, integrating, analyzing, and securing shared data and metrics to enhance organizational and program decision making

For more information:
HealthIT@ngc.com

