Jennifer C. McGarey is corporate vice president and secretary of Northrop Grumman Corporation.

McGarey is responsible for all Northrop Grumman corporate secretary functions including day-to-day corporate governance, securities compliance and maintenance of the company’s U.S. and international subsidiaries.

McGarey previously served as general counsel and secretary of RCN Corporation, where she was also vice president, human resources and vice president and compliance officer. Prior to that, she served as vice president and corporate secretary for MCI Corporation and as vice president, deputy general counsel and secretary for US Airways.

McGarey is a member of the state bars of Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia; and the Society for Corporate Governance and Association of Corporate Counsel. She serves on the board of directors of Northern Virginia Community College and Pathway Homes.

She earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration from the College of William and Mary and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Virginia.

Northrop Grumman solves the toughest problems in space, aeronautics, defense and cyberspace to meet the ever evolving needs of our customers worldwide. Our 90,000 employees define possible every day using science, technology and engineering to create and deliver advanced systems, products and services.